A Message from the Exalted Ruler

On July 1st my wife Carole and I left Vero to attend the Grand Lodge Convention held in Houston, Texas. We returned to Florida on July 6th after a hectic and tiring schedule at the Convention. The Passing of the Torch of Leadership from Ronald L. Hicks to the newly elected Grand Exalted Ruler, Michael F. Zellen was indeed one of the highlights of the gathering.

Twelve Resolutions were presented for voting. There was relatively little discussion by the 2,000 or so voting delegates. All resolutions passed by wide margins. The Memorial Service held on the final day was very impressive, as always. Carole and I would like to thank the Lodge for sending us to this our third Grand Lodge Convention.

You may see some small but meaningful changes at our Lodge in the coming months. Seminars at the convention provided plenty of fresh new ideas.

Briefly, I want to report that our Lodge did quite well in the first quarter (4/1/16 to 6/30/16) of our Elks year. A report will be posted by your Board of Directors. Thanks to Yolanda Sullivan, Jack Houlihan and all of our great volunteers who work tirelessly on your behalf. Your support has been encouraging and we ask you all to come in and join the "fun", and bring your friends!!

A file with the daily newsletters, resolutions and other related Convention material will be kept with the Lodge Secretary if anyone would care to see them.
